

A recent evaluation of the effectiveness of the state's current tech-prep education program determined that while student performance in certain areas improved, more needed to be done to improve student postsecondary achievement or labor market outcomes. The P-TECH program will address this issue for students who wish to participate in a work-based education program.