

Currently, attorney fees in a breach of contract claim against the state are recoverable if the amount in controversy is over $250,000. Legislation is needed to allow for the recovery of attorney fees for claims that are less than $250,000.